

March 1, 2021

The Mitchell County Commissioners met in formal session on Monday, March 1, 2021 with Chairman Tom Claussen and members Mike Cooper and Jim Marshall in attendance. Also in attendance was Jason Rabe, Beloit City Manager, and Heather Hartman, Community Development Director.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Claussen and the Pledge of Allegiance was recited.

The minutes of the February 22, 2021 meeting were approved as written on motion by Jim Marshall and seconded by Mike Cooper. Motion carried by unanimous vote.

Dale Housh, Public Works Director and Marty Hernandez, next in line for Mr. Housh's position met with the commission to discuss the Dunstan Waste Solutions application to be a transfer station. After considerable discussion and review of the County's Solid Waste Management Plan with other Counties in the region, the commission decided, by consensus, not to sign off on the application for Dunstan's to send to the State. The Fair Board has asked Mitchell County to waive the fees for the CD pit as they are tearing down the Barstow Building on the Fairgrounds and putting up a new building. The commission agreed to the request.

Brianne Beck, North Central Regional Planning Commission, met with the commission to present them with documents to sign to close out the CDBG-CV Grant for Mitchell County. After review of the recipients of this money the commission voted, on motion by Mike Cooper and seconded by Jim Marshall, to close out the grant. Motion carried by unanimous vote.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:30 on motion by Mike Cooper and seconded by Jim Marshall. Motion carried by unanimous vote.
