

April 16, 2018

The Mitchell County Commissioners met in formal session on Monday, April 16, 2018 at 8:30 a.m. in the Commissioner's Room of the Mitchell County Courthouse. Present were Chairman Tom Claussen and members Jim Marshall and Mike Cooper. Also present was Jason Rabe, Beloit City Manager, Terry Bailey, KSVV Radio, and Heather Hartman, Community Development Director.

The meeting was called to order at 8:30 and the Pledge of Allegiance was recited.

The minutes of the April 9, 2018 meeting were approved as written on motion by Jim Marshall and seconded by Mike Cooper. Motion carried by unanimous vote.

Dale Housh, Public Works, discussed snow removal from the blizzard on Saturday. One of the semi-tractors broke down while pulling the trash trailer and had to be taken to Freightliner in Salina. They will add a wet kit to the replacement tractor so it can be used. They are starting the bridge near Kirby Kisslinger's today and are still gravelling Hyde Road. Mr. Housh requested, and was granted, a 5-minute executive session for non-elected personnel on motion by Mike Cooper and seconded by Jim Marshall. Motion carried by unanimous vote. Session began at 8:38 and ended at 9:43 with no decisions made in executive session.

The commission discussed the burn ban currently in force in the County. They decided to keep the ban on for one more week to see what weather conditions are like next week.

There are 5 Mondays in April and the commission voted, on motion by Jim Marshall, not to hold a meeting on April 30th. Motion was seconded by Mike Cooper and carried by unanimous vote.

The updated handbook was discussed and the commission asked the Clerk to contact KCAMP with a question they had regarding vacation leave upon termination or retirement.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:30 on motion by Jim Marshall and seconded by Mike Cooper. Motion carried by unanimous vote.
