

August 17, 2020

The Mitchell County Commissioners met in formal session on Monday, August 17, 2020 at 8:30 a.m. with Chairman Jim Marshall and members Mike Cooper and Tom Claussen in attendance. Also attending were Terry Bailey, KSVV Radio, Heather Hartman, Community Development Director, and Jason Rabe, Beloit City Manager.

The meeting was called to order at 8:30 and the Pledge of Allegiance was recited.

The minutes of the August 10, 2020 meeting were approved as written on motion by Tom Claussen and seconded by Mike Cooper. Motion carried by unanimous vote.

The commission reviewed a letter of agreement with the hospital for the Conroy Building (current Health Department). The County will take the building over after the agreement is signed. The commission asked the County Attorney to review the document prior to their signatures.

Cortney Murrow, County Health Administrator, informed the commission that she and Stephanie Simmons have a grant to hire a care coordinator for Mitchell County. This is a part-time position that will also be used for contact tracing for COVID-19. Mrs. Murrow also reported that there were no current active Coronavirus cases in the County. Mrs. Murrow requested, and was granted, a 5-minute executive session with Heather Hartman and the commission on motion by Tom Claussen and seconded by Mike Cooper. Motion carried by unanimous vote. Session began at 9:15 and ended at 9:20 when it was extended 5-minutes two more times on motion by Tom Claussen and seconded by Mike Cooper. Motions carried by unanimous vote. Sessions ended at 9:35 with no decisions made in executive session.

The commission did a coin toss to determine the winner of the Pittsburg Township Trustee race. Mike Corpstein was the winner of the coin toss and will be on the ballot for the position in November.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:15 on motion by Mike Cooper and seconded by Tom Claussen. Motion carried by unanimous vote.
