

November 9, 2020

The Mitchell County Commissioners met in formal session on Monday, November 9, 2020 at 8:30 a.m. with Chairman Jim Marshall and members Mike Cooper and Tom Claussen in attendance. Also attending were Jason Rabe, Beloit City Manager, and Heather Hartman, Community Development Director.

The meeting was called to order at 8:30 and the Pledge of Allegiance was recited.

The minutes of the November 2, 2020 meeting were approved as written on motion by Mike Cooper and seconded by Jim Marshall. Motion carried by unanimous vote.

County Health Administrator Cortney Murrow stated that the COVID cases continue to go up. Mitchell County is now at 26 active cases. She also reported that Tipton schools will be doing a hybrid learning program. She is going to do a publication concerning modified quarantines, etc. She said that due to the additional case load on her staff she would like to hire another LPN or RN to help with COVID contact tracing. It would be under 30 hours per week. The commission advised her to go ahead and find some help.

Jason Rabe, Beloit City Manager, said that the HVAC system at the LEC is up and running. They are pleased with how things went during construction and commented that there are a few small things to finish.

Heather Hartman, Community Development Director, discussed the Community Foundation. Dane Hansen will match all donations 1½%.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:52 on motion by Mike Cooper and seconded by Tom Claussen. Motion carried by unanimous vote.
